Australian Society of Acupuncture Physiotherapists Inc

The Australian Society of Acupuncture Physiotherapists (ASAP) was established in 2004. As a national group the ASAP conducts post graduate education for physiotherapists, assists in producing national guidelines and represents physiotherapists who practice any of the forms of acupuncture including traditional acupuncture, western acupuncture or dry needling. You can join the ASAP directly or if you are already a member of the NSW Acupuncture Study Group of the Australian Physiotherapy Association you can join the ASAP for the nominated figure as indicated below.

NB: To attend courses run by the ASAP you must be registered as a physiotherapist and hold professional indemnity insurance.
